

Houston Lodge Theosophical Society

Fali Engineer

Am a Zoroastrian by birth, but a theosophist by inclination. Studied in India, worked in Pakistan and retired in America. Became a member of The Theosophical Society in 1966 and a qualified TM teacher in 1975, which I have been teaching since then, first in Pakistan till 1987 and here privately. Am attached to the Houston Lodge and was first its treasurer, then its vice-president and the president from 2006 to 2013.
