

Houston Lodge Theosophical Society

Shanthi Jessa

Born into the Hindu faith, my quest for religious knowledge started at the young age of twenty. I am originally from Malaysia; I came to the US in 1984 to go to college. Over the years, I attended different churches, searching for the truth. It was not until 2011 when I met Mr. Fali who introduced me to the Houston Theosophical Society. I have served as the Treasure for the past two years. I can safely say that I have finally found a place where truth is sought by study, reflection and service and not imposed by dogma; I have found a place where I can meet like-minded-people and freely share my thoughts and beliefs.
