

* Ananda Nannee ****

Ananda Nannee was first introduced to Theosophy by Billie Gollnick, the founder of School of Yoga in Houston. While Ananda was studying Yoga, Billie would often held up a book called "Yoga," by Ernest Wood, and told the students that Mr. Wood was her Yoga Teacher.

Later in San Diego California, Ananda wandered quite by chance into an office of Theosophy Lodge. In the office of the Theosophy Lodge, she was introduced to "Isis Unveiled," a book that she loves and has read for many years. Ananda is a member of the Houston Lodge of the Theosophical Society. While facilitating the chapter on "The Use of Evil," Ananda hopes to explain the moral of the story, "How the worst thing that they can do to you, can become your greatest blessing"