Synchronicity and the Search for Meaning

Day: Friday, January 18, 2019; 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Tracy Gee Community Center, 3599 Westcenter, Houston, TX 77042

Brief Description of Talk: We have all experienced remarkable coincidences from time to time, or what psychologist Carl Jung referred to as synchronicities. This lecture will explore the broader implications of this remarkable concept, how it opens a door to a dramatically different understanding of our universe, as well as some practical ways we can become more aware of “meaningful coincidence” in our lives.

Encounters with an Unconventional Mystic

Day: Saturday, January 19, 2019; 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

Location: 1525 Heights Blvd, Houston, TX 77008

Brief Description of Talk: Throughout the late 1970s and 1980s, Ray Grasse had a series of interactions with a little-known yogi and mystic by the name of Shelly Trimmer (1917-1996), a one-time student of Paramahansa Yogananda. As chronicled in Ray’s book An Infinity of Gods, this talk will explore some of the highlights of those conversations, including Trimmer’s fascinating insights into consciousness, life-after-death, and God.
