

Houston Lodge Theosophical Society

Anne Sermons Gillis

Anne Sermons Gillis was the president of the Houston Lodge from 2013 to 2015. She joined the society in 2011. Anne is a minister, author of three books, speaker, and breath worker. She has a Masters if Science degree in Counseling and has been involved in metaphysics since early childhood. Anne is active in politics and promotes sustainable living. She publishes a weekly newsletter. She is the founder of the EZosophy philosophy. You can learn more about EZosophy at annegillis.com She resides in The Woodlands, Texas with her husband, Jim Gibson, and their dog, Lucy.